Action on equality, diversity and inclusion

Organisations taking part in The RACE Report are asked to detail the action taken internally to support equality, diversity and inclusion. The list of actions covers a breadth of areas and incorporates commonly recommended actions to support progression of equality, diversity and inclusion, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list. Neither is one action intended to be prioritised over another, and actions may not be applicable to all organisations.

Approach to equality, diversity and inclusion

Through our 2024-2030 strategy, we've committed to centring equity, diversity and inclusion (EDI) in all that we do, recognising that sustainability cannot be achieved without justice and fairness. Our organisational values, collaborative, integrity, ambitious, inclusive, and empowering, guide this commitment. We seek to create equitable opportunities, challenge barriers and share learning that drives progress across the post-16 education sector. We promote whole-organisation approaches for our members, and likewise are seeking to embed effective and impactful EDI practices across our whole organisation – through governance, strategy, operations, and culture. We've introduced EDI impact assessment approaches in project planning, encourage all staff to set EDI objectives as part of annual performance reviews, and are committed to transparent reporting through our annual report and external benchmarks such as the RACE Report. Externally, we support our members through research, resources, action guides, networks, and capacity-building. We convene conversations and collaborations that connect EDI with sustainability, ensuring that diverse voices and lived experiences inform climate and education work. Through partnerships such as the Diverse Sustainability Initiative, we are strengthening collective action and accountability. Looking ahead, we are committed to building on this foundation through new resources, further refinement of our organisational practices, provision of learning and leadership development opportunities, and curating inclusive spaces at sector events.
