Action on equality, diversity and inclusion

Organisations taking part in The RACE Report are asked to detail the action taken internally to support equality, diversity and inclusion. The list of actions covers a breadth of areas and incorporates commonly recommended actions to support progression of equality, diversity and inclusion, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list. Neither is one action intended to be prioritised over another, and actions may not be applicable to all organisations.

Approach to equality, diversity and inclusion

“

Green Schools Project is actively working to be an anti-racist organisation. We recognise that the environment, climate, sustainability and conservation sector is amongst the least diverse in the UK. As an organisation working towards climate justice, we see this as a fundamental problem that we have a responsibility to help address. Green Schools Project is looking at how we can make changes internally in how we operate as an organisation, and externally through the climate education work we do with schools and pupils across the country. We believe all young people should have access to high quality climate and sustainability education in their schools, regardless of their background. We want all young people to have their voices heard and to feel that the climate and nature space is for them. Since 2023, we have worked with The RACE Report to help us to monitor our progress and to be transparent and accountable. We have committed to keeping equity in mind in key decisions we make and services we design as an organisation. We have put in place better training, recruitment and diversity monitoring processes. We recognise we are on a journey and have committed to take actions and to learn and grow as an organisation.
