Action on equality, diversity and inclusion

Organisations taking part in The RACE Report are asked to detail the action taken internally to support equality, diversity and inclusion. The list of actions covers a breadth of areas and incorporates commonly recommended actions to support progression of equality, diversity and inclusion, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list. Neither is one action intended to be prioritised over another, and actions may not be applicable to all organisations.

Approach to equality, diversity and inclusion

Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion are core values to which CIWF has always been committed, both in theory and in practice. The animal protection movement is under-representative of the communities we serve, and we are committed to improving processes and staff makeup to become a beacon of EDI within our movement. For this purpose, CIWF launched an EDI audit in February 2022 to formalise, prioritise and shape an organisational culture around embedded EDI principles and practices. These areas span the whole of the global organisation, ranging from learning & development, organisational culture, staff engagement, staff networks, strategy development, to programmatic planning and external engagement. The feedback from the audit helped us further develop our EDI strategy which we updated to run from 2023-2025 to align with our organisational strategy (being refreshed). As part of our ongoing commitment to EDI, we hired a Global Employee Engagement Manager at the start of 2023 to ensure the intentionality and universality of EDI principles are embedded in the running of the organisation. We have regular, organisation-wide EDI Newsletters and a dedicated EDI site on our intranet and Teams. We provide mandatory and voluntary EDI training to all colleagues and have a Global EDI Committee as well as a US Culture Committee. This year will mark our fourth submission to the RACE Report. We also participated in the RACE Report Staff Perceptions survey this year, for which we achieved a high return rate. We are also signatories to the Race at Work Charter.
