Nature Looked Around Her Garden

Nature looked around her garden
And found an empty place.
She then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
She put her arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
Her garden must be beautiful
She always takes the best.
She knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
She saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So she closed your weary eyelids
And whispered 'peace by thine.'
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day you were called home.
