The time for my departure has come.
I fought the good fight, I have finished the race.
I have kept the faith.

Now there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness.
Which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award me on that day,
And not only me, but to all who have longed for His appearing.

The Lord stood by me and gave me strength.
To Him be the glory forever & ever, Amen.

Today I would like you to celebrate my life.
Think of all the great times we have had together.
Because I have known each of you, I have been blessed.
My family have always supported me and made me thankful to have been their Mum, Ma, Nan and Auntie Brenda.

Don't be sad for me!
I will soon be in a place where there will be no loneliness,
no unhappiness and no pain.
Be happy for me that I am now at peace.

The Lord's My Shepherd

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul He doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for His own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear no ill;
For Thou art with me, and Thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table Thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head Thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me,
And in God's house forevermore
My dwelling-place shall be.
