Nature looked around her garden
And found an empty place
She then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face
She put her arms around you
And lifted you to rest
Her garden must be beautiful
She always takes the best
She knew that you would never
Get well on earth again
She saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb
So, she closed your weary eyelids
And whispered 'peace by thine'
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day you were called home
