Tributes - Jeffrey's family

In the roar of a motor, the spray of the sand,
the thrum of a speedboat or bike under hand, Jeff was there, alive and free, chasing the horizon, wild as the sea.

But in the hush of the bush, in the call of a bird,
the light rush of wind so often heard, Jeff was there, gentle and still,
a quiet soul, with a curious will.

We'll hear him in engines,
in wind through the trees,
in laughter, in friendship,
and in memories.

'Of all the roads you take in life, make sure a few of them are dirt.'
