

Today we have met to honour the life of a loved
father, grandfather and great grandfather.

To express our thanks for his life
and to support each other as we face his loss.

Please feel free to continue in remembering Roy's life
over some light refreshments, back at Parkside,
at the conclusion of the interment.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me.

I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared,
miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take,
and each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan,
a step on the way to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,
go to the friends we know.
Bury your sorrow in doing good deeds,
miss me, but let me go.

- Edgar Albert Guest

An Irish Blessing

May the road rise to meet you,
may the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
and rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
may God hold you in the hollow of His hand.
