Green Fairways

*But beyond the silks and saddles beyond the roar of the crowd he found his peace on green fairways
a club in hand a softer game where the world slowed down and the laughter came easy*

And there was always a cold beer waiting raised in good company shared in stories that grew taller with every telling

Yet his greatest victories weren't won on turf or grass they were found at the table in the arms of his family in the quiet pride of being theirs

Today we lay down the reins we quiet the course we lift a glass in his honour not in sorrow alone but in gratitude for the ride

Thank You

Mick's family are so grateful that you could be here today, and for the many ways in which you have shown them support.

They warmly invite you to stay for refreshments and sharing of memories here at Parkside at the conclusion of this service.
