

Neurons Ethics and Policies

At Neurons, we are committed to conducting business in an ethical and responsible manner. We uphold a strong set of principles and values that guide our operations and relationships with customers, partners, and stakeholders. Our commitment extends to ensuring that our products and services are not used for activities that are harmful, illegal, or unethical. We firmly state that Neurons does not deal in, and strongly discourages the use of its products for the following:

Industries:

1. Conventional Tobacco Products: We do not support or engage in any business activities related to the production, distribution, or promotion of conventional tobacco products, meaning cigarettes, cigars, and hookah tobacco products etc.
2. Narcotics Substances: Neurons prohibits the use of its products in any illegal activities involving narcotics or controlled substances.
3. Pornography and other explicit content: We strictly condemn any form of pornography. Our products should not be used for the creation, distribution, or consumption of explicit content.
4. Weapons: We do not engage in the production, sale, or distribution of weapons designed for war or military use, and we strongly discourage any use of our products that contributes to the manufacture or proliferation of such weapons. This policy does not apply to hunting or sporting weapons, which are legitimate recreational tools when used in compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

Regions:

Neurons acknowledges the importance of adhering to international norms and regulations. Therefore, we refrain from conducting business in regions where ethical and legal standards may be compromised. As a result, we do not operate in the following regions:

1. Regions that are subject to sanctions imposed by the United Nations, the United States, or the European Union;
2. Regions that are designated as state sponsors of terrorism by the United Nations, the United States or the European Union; and
3. Regions that have been identified as having a high risk of corruption or money laundering.

If a client is found to be doing business in a restricted region, Neurons may terminate their agreement immediately and without penalty.

Other Ethical Considerations:

In addition to the industries and regions mentioned above, Neurons is firmly committed to the following ethical considerations:

1. Bribery: We have a zero-tolerance policy for bribery and corruption. We do not condone or participate in any form of bribery, whether it involves public officials, business partners, or any other parties.

2. Slavery: Neurons is committed to respecting human rights, and we strictly prohibit any involvement with organizations or entities that engage in slavery or human trafficking.
3. Child Labor/Exploitation: We adhere to all applicable labor laws and regulations and do not support or engage in any activities that involve child labor or exploitation.

Our Ethics and Policies Page serves as a testament to our unwavering commitment to ethical conduct and responsible business practices. We continuously strive to ensure that our products and services contribute positively to society, uphold human rights, and align with the highest standards of integrity and morality. We expect all employees, partners, and stakeholders associated with Neurons, including our clients to share in this commitment and conduct themselves in a manner that upholds these principles.