

Elise van der Hoek

Elise graduated in 2022 from Leiden University, where she obtained a Master's degree in Civil Law, specialising in real estate law. While studying, she worked as a student trainee and legal assistant at Straatman Koster advocaten, focusing on various legal areas within construction law and real estate law.

Elise joined Straatman Koster advocaten as a lawyer in February 2023.

Praktijkgebieden

Procurement law

Construction law

EU & State Aid

Expertise:

Elise advises and litigates on matters relating to construction law, public procurement law, and EU & State Aid. Her practice primarily focuses on public procurement issues, including the preparation of procurement procedures, the assessment of tenders, and the award decisions.

She also advises and litigates in the field of limited public rights (schaarse rechten), such as the sale of land by public authorities (Didam ruling).

Elise is a member of the Rotterdam Young Bar Association and the Dutch Procurement Law Association (NVvA).

Some publications:

- 'De aanbesteder en het (on)wenselijke contactverbod', article published in the journal TA 2024/36 (co-authored with J.F. van Nouhuys)
- 'Hoge Raad verduidelijkt sancties bij schending Didamregels' article published in the journal HIP 2025/17 (co-authored with P. Heijnsbroek)

Contact

Mobile: +31 6 26 59 61 01

E-mail: elise.vanderhoek@straatmankoster.nl

Office: +31 10 24 00 447