Practice areas

Construction law

Procurement law

Expertise:

Frederik specialises in procurement law and construction law in the broadest sense. He litigates and advises in these fields and acts on behalf of principals as well as contractors.

Frederik publishes regularly on the latest procurement law-related developments and is co-author of 'Aanbestedingsrecht', the legal manual in the field. He is also a regular speaker at seminars and courses for the Netherlands Institute for Construction Law (IBR), the VU Law Academy, the Grotius Academy, the Institute for International Research and the Educational Centre for Business and Public Sector (Studiecentrum voor Bedrijf en Overheid)

In addition to these activities, Frederik is a member of the Construction Law Association (VBR) and the Dutch Procurement Law Association (NVvA).

Frederik is also one of the nineteen Dutch lawyers who were listed in the 2012 edition of the Who's Who Legal for Public Procurement.

Frederik has listed the following main and secondary legal practice areas in the register of legal practice areas of the Netherlands Bar (Nederlandse orde van advocaten, NOvA):

- Procurement law

This listing requires him to obtain ten training credits in each registered main legal practice area in accordance with the standards of the Netherlands Bar each calendar year.

Some publications:

- Commentary on the Didam ruling given by the Supreme Court on 26 November 2021, TA 2022/3 (co-authored with Paul Heijnsbroek)
- 'Kroniek Europese en nationale jurisprudentie staatssteunrecht 2021', (co-authored with Paul Heijnsbroek, Adrienne Geelhoed, Allard Knook and Emma Besselink).
