

HOTEL QUINTESSENCE

OPULENT OUTDOORS AT FIVESTAR LUXURY BOUTIQUE HOTEL
IN MONT-TREMBLANT

By NORAH BRADFORD

Creating hospitality that proudly focuses on guests achieving harmonious balance is the goal of Hotel Quintessence. To be able to provide “the quintessential things of life” and all the elements to experience a lasting sense of well-being is the well-rooted philosophy of the popular luxury boutique hotel in Mont-Tremblant that has a One Key Michelin since 2024.

Boutique hotels such as this Canadian location differentiate from branded hotels with personalized level of accommodation and services that guests over the years have come to admire. A notable 30 luxury suites all face the Lake Tremblant and range in size from 700 to 1200 square feet, are all facing the water.

Room highlights include custom made King-size beds with superior bedding with 300-thread-count Egyptian cotton sheets, feather pillows and top-quality goose down duvets from partner 'Marie l'Oie' in St-Jérôme; wood-burning fireplaces with eco logs; and private balconies or large terraces with screened French patio doors to enjoy the mountain air.

The great outdoors calls you for adventures of hiking and fishing in the area before heading back inside to discover a grand culinary journey within the walls of the property.

Led by an expert head chef, the culinary experience is artfully mastered to perfectly blend styles and Laurentian flavors, the cuisine is rooted in French influences. A curated menu features fine ingredients from local producers paired with an award-winning wine list.

From the hotel terrace enjoy beautiful sunsets or midday cocktails that can be slowly sipped with the breathtaking view of Lake Tremblant. Restaurant La Quintessence offers a main dining room with lake views or choose one of two private salons, Aube or Crépuscule. There is also the exclusive Chef's Table in the “greenhouse” that grants the visitor the opportunity to indulge in a unique chef tasting menu. Sommeliers can also guide you through various wines, whether during your meal or simply in the tasting room that adjoins the cellar that holds close to 5,000 bottles.

The exquisite wine bar is the perfect place to unwind in a lounge atmosphere after dinner. An extensive wine and spirits menu has one of the best selections of wines by the glass, a wide range of ports as well as scotch and whiskies

Days can also be yours to fully embrace at Spa Sans Sabots. Ensuring guests experience pure relaxation, a setup focuses on warm décor. A dry sauna, steam bath, outdoor infinity pool (only in summer), an oversized hot tub, and a gym facility all add to the experience. Spend the afternoon getting in touch with the epicenter of your health at the spa or perhaps even order a massage at the spa. Treat yourself even more and order the service in your own room near the fireplace. The possibilities are endless in a space reserved as a sanctuary for mindful peace and tranquility.

From wellness to fine dining, a visitor can simply expect pure joy and melting away over any stress from the world. The opulence of the environment is a gift from nature and serves for a perfect home away from home that is discovered at Hotel Quintessence.

For more information, please visit www.hotelquintessence.com

