

Meetings & Events on Nantucket

FARAWAY

ZANTUCKET

About

Steps from the harbor and positioned at the epicenter of Town's bustling island milieu, Faraway Nantucket offers tailor-made boutique lodging for the young at heart.

Within the walls of 200-year old classic New England architecture, where ocean-inspired decor and bonafide island elegance characterize Faraway, celebrations and events become long cherished memories. For every occasion, we'll help you set a high bar for gathering in harmony 30 miles out to sea.

Faraway Nantucket boasts 6 buildings, 79 guest rooms, an award winning restaurant, and a coveted outdoor courtyard.

Retail In Residence

Faraway Nantucket had the pleasure of partnering with luxury fashion brands for our Retail in Residence program in the Federal Suite. Over varying lengths of time, be it a full month or just one summer weekend, brands activated the first floor living spaces and outdoor patios to curate unique shopping experiences for local Islanders and summer visitors alike.

SISTER SHIP

As the story of Sister Ship goes, Ship Captain Susan Bloomfield and her all-female crew set sail for a journey through the Mediterranean many moons ago. Throughout their travels, Susan and her crew collected recipes, knick knacks, pictures and another collectables.

Sister Ship highlights Susan's living room, putting on display all of their findings throughout the space. Our menu celebrates the recipes and ingredients Susan and her crew tasted through their travels.

Blue Iris

at Life House

Introducing Faraway Nantucket's younger sister, Blue Iris. Located one block from Faraway in the heart of Nantucket, this historic 12-room inn is a delightful additional option for full buyouts group bookings.

In the late 1800s, an art collector settled into a Greek Revival vacation estate in the heart of Nantucket. A Patroness of the Arts, she fondly welcomed neighbors and travelers for intimate gatherings on her garden patio and invited local artists to use her home as their studio. Our House is designed to reflect her love for the seaside, rustic Mediterranean design, and Portuguese art.
