

EQUITY PARTNERS

Job Posting: Principal, Investor Relations

The Firm:

Langdon Equity Partners is a global investment firm solely focused on smaller companies and based in Toronto.

The Opportunity:

This role will be part of our company's face to our valued clients and the investment community. We are customer-centric and are looking for someone deeply knowledgeable of and engaged in our investment process. If you are passionate about building a business, being a trusted resource for clients, and being motivated to learn and improve, you are a great fit for the role.

Position Details:

- This is a full-time position and ideally the last company you'll work for
- You will receive a competitive base salary and participate in our annual discretionary bonus plan with the potential to be part of the equity plan

Accountabilities:

If you need us to outline this, then we are probably not a great fit.

Qualifications:

- Existing relationships in the advisor community
- Minimum of 5 years of relationship management experience in investment management
- Proven track record of capital raising
- Strong communication and presentation skills
- Ability to travel extensively

How to Apply:

Please send your resume and response to the question below to clientservices@langdonpartners.com. Limit response to 250 words.
