Today's Video of the Day is a performance of Libby Larsen's Amber by Min Kwon.

This comes from the album America/Beautiful, a five-volume collection conceived, commissioned and performed by pianist Min Kwon. Comprised of 76 new piano works by American composers, the record is inspired by America the Beautiful, offering different perspectives that question and re-imagine the American experiment.

Speaking of the album, Kwon said: 'in spite of all the difficulties we face, there is still profound beauty, humanity, and possibility in this country'.

America/Beautiful is out on 8 May Delos Records.
