

3-A SSI Is Moving

Frequently Asked Questions

Why is 3-A SSI moving?

This move is a strategic step to better serve our mission and the 3-A SSI community.

Our new location in Washington, DC, is adjacent to the International Dairy Foods Association (IDFA) offices. This will allow us to deepen connections within the dairy industry while creating new opportunities to engage with groups representing the broader food industry, many of which are located in the nation's capital.

The move also provides greater operational efficiency and better aligns our physical space with the needs of our team.

Where is 3-A SSI moving? / What is the new address?
