

People News: Welcome Benjamin Schönefuß

Munich, 01 December 2025.

We are very happy to announce the official start of Benjamin Schönefuß as Senior Manager Value Creation at SEVEST.

He will be responsible for driving post-investment value creation in SEVEST portfolio companies, with a focus on optimizing all relevant functional areas and business processes in collaboration with the respective CEOs and management teams.

Before joining SEVEST, Benjamin worked in value creation at Serafin Unternehmensgruppe where he was responsible for value creation initiatives at several portfolio companies. Prior to that he worked in consulting, last as manager at Arthur D. Little. He has extensive value creation and transformation experience in Germany, Europe and the USA. He holds a German Diploma in Business Administration from University of Bayreuth.

Welcome Benjamin!

