

People News: Welcome Sarah Ostrowski

Munich, 13 January 2026

We are pleased to welcome Sarah Ostrowski as Executive and Fund Assistant at SEVEST.

In this role, Sarah supports senior management with executive coordination, fund-related activities with a focus on finance and CFO processes, and internal operations.

Prior to joining SEVEST, Sarah worked in asset management in an assistant role with a strong client-management focus. She previously spent seven years at Canada Life Europe, where she started as Executive Assistant and later moved into a senior position in legal and quality management, overseeing legal cases and regulatory matters.

Sarah began her career at a tax and auditing consultancy, building a solid foundation in tax accounting and financial services.

Welcome Sarah!
