People News: Welcome Marc Spengler!

Munich, 14 September 2026

We are pleased to welcome Marc Spengler as Manager Value Creation, at SEVEST.

In this role, he will be responsible for driving post-investment value creation across SEVEST's portfolio companies, with a focus on optimizing relevant functional areas and business processes in collaboration with the respective CEOs and management teams.

Before joining SEVEST, Marc worked as a Co-Founder and CEO, as well as a Chief of Staff, in the SaaS and AI space, where he led go-to-market and operations in growth-stage companies. Prior to that, he worked in consulting, most recently as a Principal at The Boston Consulting Group. He has extensive experience in value creation and transformation across Germany, Europe, and the USA.

He holds an MBA from INSEAD, a BSc in International Management from ESB Business School Reutlingen, and a BA in European Business from Dublin City University.

Welcome Marc!
