

Christian McGee

PROFILE

Christian McGee is a proud Yorta Yorta Artist who grew up in southern Tasmania.

“My inspiration stems from my grandfather who grew up on the Commeragunja mission on the Murray river, before moving to Tasmania in his early 20s.”

Christian was born in Hobart in 1976 and lived there until 1995, at which time he enlisted into the Australian Army with a career spanning 22 years.

He started painting on and off over the last 10 years as a form of rehabilitation due to injury, both physically and mentally sustained in the military.

His work is mainly abstract with bold acrylic colours, his inspiration derives from the love of the ocean and the surf.
