Impact Evaluation

Design and manage high quality
impact evaluation

8 - 11 December, 2025

Bangkok, Thailand (In-Person)

Why our Impact Evaluation Course

There is an increasing demand for impact evaluation. But for most practitioners, clearly defining impact, as well as adequately assessing, and evaluating it, remains a challenge. This course will guide you through a step-by-step process for an impact evaluation, providing you with viable options to measure impact, especially for complex interventions. You will learn different methods and how to choose the most suitable for your case.

By the end of the course, you will:

- Develop a comprehensive understanding of common impact measurement approaches
- Be able to choose the impact evaluation methods that are most suitable for different scenarios
- Gain skills to manage an evaluation process from start to finish
- Have practiced developing a complete evaluation framework
