Why our course

The most valuable assets of an organization are the people. Today's effective leaders understand what drives others and they are aware of their personal strengths, pitfalls and motives. Are you someone who generates trust, shows empathy, and appreciates diversity? Effective leaders embrace lifelong learning. Join us on this course and take the next step on your leadership journey.

Key topics

- DISC personal leadership styles
- Personal accountability concept
- Leading different types of team members
- Providing constructive feedback
- Motivating self and others
- Conflict management

Who this training is for?

This training is relevant for professionals aspiring to be or currently in a leadership role of an international/multilateral organisation. Our participants are responsible for leading, managing or supporting individual staff or teams, with strong motivation to increase your self-awareness and develop trust through self-reflection and experimentation.

By the end of this course, you will:

- Have gained insight in your personal leadership style through the DISC profile, including strengths, pitfalls and dynamics with others
- Understand key concepts like trust and accountability in leadership and know how to generate these in yourself and others
- Strengthen your people management skills like active listening, providing constructive feedback and coaching
- Be able to strengthen your engagement and motivation among colleagues and adapt your leadership style to different types of people
- Be able to address performance issues and deal with conflict more effectively

Certificate

Participants will receive a certificate of completion by the end of the course if you have finalized all the online assignments and have attended the face-to-face programme.
