

Finance Director / CFO

Bloom Biorenewables Ltd is pioneering solutions to tackle the climate crisis. Leveraging a breakthrough technology developed at EPFL, Bloom's mission is to transform biomass into a true alternative to petroleum. After demonstrating the uniqueness of its technology and delivering tangible value to customers, Bloom is entering a new phase: scaling up to industrial production. Today, Bloom operates through third-party facilities while preparing to build its own state-of-the-art production plant. To navigate this next stage of growth, Bloom is looking for a Finance Director to lead its strategic financial operations.

Key Responsibilities

- Strategic Financial Leadership
 - Develop and execute financial strategies aligned with company growth objectives.
 - Provide insights and recommendations to the CEO and leadership team for decision-making.
- Operational Finance Management
 - Oversee day-to-day financial operations, including accounting, cash flow, and budgeting.
 - Create and manage the annual budget and rolling forecasts.
 - Implement robust financial controls and reporting systems.
 - Implement and maintain financial ERP tools to ensure scalability and efficiency.
- Reporting
 - Prepare accurate and timely financial reports for Board meetings and investors.
- Compliance & Risk Management
 - Ensure adherence to regulatory requirements and manage financial risk effectively.
 - Coordinate internal and external audits to maintain compliance and transparency.
- Growth Enablement
 - Support CAPEX planning for FOAK projects, Series B fundraising preparation, costing, and reporting.
- Cross-Functional Collaboration
 - Work closely with product, operations, and leadership teams to enable agile decision-making

Candidate Profile

- Experience
 - Ideally 7-15 years of experience in industrial controlling within an SME or large-cap environment.
 - Solid background in corporate finance.
 - Strong experience in Swiss GAAP reporting
- Skills
 - Strong analytical and problem-solving skills.
 - Hands-on approach with the ability to dive into details while maintaining strategic oversight.
 - Familiarity with ERP systems and digital finance tools.
- Mindset
 - Positive, energetic attitude with ambition to grow into a senior leadership role.
 - Comfortable working in a fast-changing, agile startup environment.
 - Ability to develop alongside Bloom's team and become an indispensable partner for financial management.
- Education
 - Degree from a reputed university in Finance, Accounting or related field; professional certifications (CPA, CFA) are a plus.
 - English (French is not needed)
 - 80-100% occupancy.
