Frank Winston Crum Insurance Adopts Akur8's Platform to Enhance Risk Modeling, Pricing, and Reserving Processes

New York, NY and Clearwater, FL | June 3, 2025

Akur8, the next generation insurance pricing and reserving solution, is thrilled to announce that Frank Winston Crum Insurance has selected Akur8's core platform solution to provide them with fast model development, explainable insights, and accurate financial impact forecasting for both pricing and reserving processes.

For over 20 years, Frank Winston Crum Insurance (FWCI) has been a trusted partner for businesses seeking reliable workers' compensation and general liability coverage. With a strong financial foundation and a dedication to long-term stability, Frank Winston Crum Insurance continues to expand its reach, helping small and mid-sized businesses succeed while staying true to its core values.

Akur8's platform will support our efforts to drive profitable growth through deeper insights into our experience and more control over our models. Bringing these models in-house will be a collaborative effort between Product, Underwriting, and Actuarial departments, promoting an integrated Enterprise Risk Management strategy.
