GOOD NEWS

• CHRIST IS BORN!

When the Magi arrived in Bethlehem their concern for the newborn Jesus must have been overwhelming. The vulnerability of a tiny new life versus the huge and powerful political powers that aimed to destroy him seemed like an unwinnable fight. However, the good news is that even in the most unlikely and fragile situations, God's power is unstoppable. As Jesus himself says, 'Take courage! I have overcome the world!' (Jn 16:33)

• REASONS TO BE HOPEFUL

- NUGENT ADVENT CELEBRATIONS AT SMCC

Staff from across the archdiocese were delighted to join Nugent's Advent Celebrations at St Margaret Clitherow Centre on 12 December. Staff, volunteers, and friends from Nugent, the Archdiocese of Liverpool, and other partner charities came together for Mass with Archbishop John Sherrington, followed by a festive meal and gathering.

A particular highlight of the afternoon was the freshly baked mince pies, prepared with care in Nugent kitchens! And we are especially grateful to the wonderful contributions of a talented group of musicians from the Wigan & Leigh Deanery, who came to help us celebrate.

A huge thanks goes to everyone who helped bring the day together so beautifully. We look forward to many more joint celebrations in the New Year and we ask that you join us in continuing to pray for Nugent and their work in the year ahead!
