Introduction from the Archbishop of Liverpool

Thank you for your interest in a career at the Archdiocese of Liverpool.

As an archdiocese, we serve thousands of people every week through our parishes, schools, partnerships and local communities.

It is a significant time in the life of our archdiocese, as we continue to walk together on the journey set out by our Pastoral Plan in becoming the Church God calls us to be. This plan outlines a clear mission for the future of our Church and every single member of staff plays a vital role in helping us achieve this.

As an employer, we offer wide range of benefits and a place to develop your career in an environment where every member of staff is valued and encouraged to develop fully their gifts.

We are looking for people whose values align with ours and are passionate about playing a key role in the next steps of our journey.

Thank you again for considering a role within our archdiocese. Each person contributes to our wider mission. I am grateful for your interest in joining us in this important work.

The Pastoral Development Department

The Pastoral Development Department was formed to serve both the existing and evolving needs of the local church, helping to prepare the parishes of today for the Church of tomorrow. It contributes to the implementation of the Archdiocesan Pastoral Plan, the fruit of Synod 2020.

The Department strives to support and encourage the life and mission of the local church, helping parishes, families of parishes and deaneries plan for a sustainable future within the framework of the Pastoral Plan. This will include sensitively responding to local requirements and needs, facilitating change and supporting transition wherever identified as necessary, and further empowering clergy and laity for their mission through the provision of expertise, encouragement, support, and formation.

In the background, there are two computer monitors displaying code, a pink mug, and a small penguin figurine. A blue rounded rectangle with white text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

About the Role

Catholic Social Action Coordinator

The Catholic Social Action Coordinator is an exciting role designed to initiate, deliver, coordinate, and evaluate the Archdiocese's work in Catholic social action. Working closely with internal colleagues and external partners, the post-holder will play a key role in embedding the Archdiocese's commitment to inclusivity, justice, peace, care for the poor, support for the marginalised, and responsibility for the environment.

Situated within the Pastoral Development Department, this role actively supports the implementation of the Archdiocesan Pastoral Plan (2020). The post-holder will work primarily within Area 1 of the Plan, while also contributing to activities across the remaining five areas as needed.

The Catholic Social Action Coordinator will collaborate with both clergy and lay people, engaging individuals and groups across deaneries, families of parishes, parishes, Archdiocesan offices, and relevant external organisations such as charities and agencies. The central focus of the role is to coordinate Catholic Social Action and environmental initiatives aligned with Catholic Social Teaching and the principles of Laudato Si'.

This post sits within the Pastoral Development Department and will be a key contributor to their mission, ensuring that the values of social justice and environmental stewardship remain integral to the Archdiocese's pastoral work as established in the Pastoral Plan.
