Photos in progress!

During this event, we will be taking photographs that may be used in the archdiocese's communications. The photographs may appear on our social media channels, website or newsletters.

If you'd rather not be photographed, please let a member of the communications team or one of the event organisers know and we will happily respect your wishes.

Archdiocese of Liverpool