
Josh Barrow

Actor/Writer

Josh is an actor and writer from Newcastle and has written four scripts for the stage. Two of the four stage scripts were developed and produced by the theatre company Gutter Street, which he is the co-founder of.

Josh has served as a Dramaturg for numerous scripts including work with the Royal Court. His play 'Sweet Heathens' was longlisted for the 2022 Bruntwood Prize for Playwriting. Josh was the 2017 National Champion of TriForce's Monologue Slam after competing with a self-penned piece.

In partnership with Birdie Pictures, Papatango has commissioned Josh to write a short-film for production – to be released in 2024.

Short Film

Heathen Land [w/t]	2024	Birdie Pictures & Papatango (dir. George Turvey)
--------------------	------	--

Theatre:

High Riser	2021	Gutter Street
Nowhere Orange	2018	Gutter Street
Festers Away	2016	Alphabetti Theatre Company, Newcastle
Hangers	2013	In collaboration with Newcastle College

Workshops

Writers of the Unexplored (working with autistic writers to develop a script for stage), Actor and Dramaturg, Royal Court Theatre.