

CTST SOCIAL OUTINGS SUMMER 2025/26

Devonport | East Devonport | Latrobe
Miandetta | Ambleside

Thursday 8 January - Elizabeth Town Bakery

Hop on board the 22 seater bus with your friends on the way to the Elizabeth Town Bakery Cafe, an iconic Tasmanian stop on the Bass Highway, known for its extensive range of freshly baked goods, including signature pies, cakes, and sweets, making it a perfect spot for morning tea.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10 - $25

Friday 9 January - Sheffield & The Ducks Bar and Restaurant

We'll start our morning on the 11 seater bus headed to Sheffield for a morning tea stop of your choice. From there we will continue on to Rosevears for lunch to The Ducks Bar & Restaurant. Set amongst the vineyards with sweeping views of the Tamar River, it is a stunning spot for a relaxed and delicious lunch.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: Consumer choice of venue

Lunch cost: $40-$60 average

Friday 9 January - Trend Shed & Bellys Bar and Grill

Join your friends on the 22 seater bus for morning tea at The Trend Shed in Port Sorell, the perfect excuse to grab a quality coffee and a bite while having a quick sticky beak at their latest homewares and fashion drop. Then, it's just a quick drive to Latrobe for a wholesome lunch at Belly's Bar & Grill.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10-$30 average

Lunch cost: $20-$55 average

Thursday 15 January - Cradle Gateway Café - Moina

Join your friends on the 22 seater bus for morning tea in Moina at the Cradle Gateway Chalets & Café. Serving as a peaceful base with a convenient on-site cafe near Cradle Mountain National Park. The café provides a cozy atmosphere and offers hearty meals and refreshments.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $5-$35 average

ctst.org.au

Friday 16 January - Blue Berry Barn & Café & Grays Hotel

Join your friends on the 22 seater bus and head out for morning tea at the Blueberry Barn Café in Frankford, a true country gem known for its comforting, homemade fare and proper Devonshire Cream Tea. Then, it's straight to Georgetown for a classic pub lunch at the historic Grays Hotel, a town icon that's reliably good for a satisfying bistro feed.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10-$30 average

Lunch cost: $10-$45 average

Friday 16 January - Penguin & Seabrook Hotel

Today we will start our morning on the 11 seater bus headed to Penguin for morning tea of your choice, before moving onto a relaxed lunch at the Seabrook Hotel. The Seabrook offers a picturesque coastal backdrop, known for its delicious home-style meals.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: Consumer choice of venue

Lunch cost: $20-$50 average

Thursday 22 January - Sanctuary Corner Café

Join us on our 22 seater bus as we journey to the Sanctuary Corner Café in Shearwater, offering a cozy spot for breakfast and lunch. It is known for its menu of Australian dishes, including gluten-free options and cakes, with service available for dining indoors or on the outdoor patio.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10-$30 average

Friday 23 January - Deloraine Deli & Great Lakes Hotel

Join us on the 22 seater bus where our journey will begin with morning tea at the Deloraine Deli, where we can enjoy quality coffee and select from their range of fresh sweets and gourmet Tasmanian deli lines. Afterwards we will travel to the Central Highlands for lunch at the Great Lake Hotel in Miena, a modern country pub renowned for its substantial meals.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10-$30 average

Lunch cost: $20-$40 average

Friday 23 January - Windows on Westella & Marrawah Inn

We'll begin our day on the 11 seater bus headed to morning tea at Windows on Westella in Ulverstone, a modern café with large windows, vineyard views, and a warm, welcoming atmosphere. It's a perfect spot to relax and enjoy a cuppa. Shortly after, the Marrawah Inn is known for serving up generous, home-style meals made with premium local produce.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $15-$35 average

Lunch cost: $20-$40 average

Tuesday 27 January - Exeter Bakery & Bridestowe Lavender Farm

You and your friends will board the 22 seater but on the way to Exeter. The Exeter Bakery is highly famous for its classic Tasmanian Curried Scallop Pie, which has been baked in its original 1901 woodfired ovens for over a century. Scottsdale, a major agricultural hub, is known for the nearby Bridestowe Lavender Estate which have been kind enough to offer our Social Outings travellers free entry, during the blossom period.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10-$30 average

Lunch cost: $10-$35 average

ctst.org.au

Thursday 29 January - Beach Hut Café

Hop on the 22 seater bus and head off to the Beach Hut Café (or Beach Hut Coffee) in Ulverstone, offers beach-side dining with a wide range of healthy and delicious meals. It is well-known for its all-day breakfast, fish and chips, and coffee.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10–$30 average

Friday 30 January - Westbury & Scottsdale

Today we start our morning on the 11 seater bus headed to morning tea in Westbury of your choice, a historic village known for its English-style village green and quaint cafes. For lunch, you will move onto Scottsdale, the service hub of North East Tasmania, offering numerous cafes and restaurants, as well as plenty of local shops to browse.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: Consumer choice of venue

Lunch cost: Consumer choice of venue

Friday 30 January - Brewstone Pizzeria & Café & Bridge Hotel Forth

Board the 22 seater bus as we journey to Brewstone Pizzeria & Café, a popular local renowned for its great coffee and high-quality food. Afterwards, lunch is at the historic Bridge Hotel in Forth, a classic pub offering reliable, hearty bistro meals, well-known for their generous steaks and parmi's.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10–$35 average

Lunch cost: $20–$40 average

Thursday 5 February - Paper & Cup Café

Today the 22 seater bus will be going to the Paper and Cup Café, which is a popular spot in Sheffield, Tasmania, offering an extensive all-day menu for coffee, breakfast, and brunch. Their offerings include specialty coffees, fresh-baked goods, and savory items.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $5–$35 average

Friday 6 February - The Hub Café & Ducks Bar & Restaurant

You and your friends will board our 22 seater bus and start your day with morning tea at the Hub Café in Westbury, a friendly, family-owned establishment well-known for its excellent coffee and delicious handmade cakes and slices. Then, head to the scenic Tamar Valley for lunch at The Ducks Bar and Restaurant in Rosevears.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $20–$40 average

Lunch cost: $20–$40 average

Friday 6 February - Exeter & Grays Hotel

You will begin your day on the 11 seater bus headed to morning tea in Exeter, a central town in the scenic West Tamar Valley offering a choice of local cafes like Cabin Coffee or Exeter Bakery. For a traditional pub lunch, you are booked at Grays Hotel George Town, an historic landmark known for its bistro dining and being a great meeting spot.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: Consumer choice of venue

Lunch cost: $10–$45 average

ctst.org.au

Thursday 12 February - Leonardoz

Join us on the 22 seater bus and treat yourself to a relaxing morning tea at Leonardoz, a stylish café and restaurant located in Wivenhoe. With its warm atmosphere, ocean views, and locally loved menu, Leonardoz is a hidden gem on Tasmania's North West Coast.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10–$30 average

Friday 13 February - Olivers Bakery and Cafe & Penguin Beer Co.

Today the 22 seater bus is on its way to morning tea at Oliver's Bakery & Café in Ulverstone, an award-winning bakery famed for its freshly baked goods, excellent coffee, and particularly its savory options like the renowned Scallop Mornay Pie. Lunch will be at Penguin Beer Co in Penguin, a beachfront brewery and diner where you can enjoy their craft beers paired with a casual menu of burgers and tacos.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10–$35 average

Lunch cost: $20–$40 average

Friday 13 February - Deloraine & Sheffield Hotel

You will begin with morning tea in Deloraine on the 11 seater bus, a historic town famous for its Georgian and Victorian architecture, and a thriving arts and crafts scene. For lunch, you will move onto Sheffield, the "Town of Murals," where you can choose from numerous cafes and the legendary Sheffield Hotel for a hearty meal.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: Consumer choice of venue

Lunch cost: $20–$40 average

Thursday 19 February - Christmas Hills Raspberry Farm

Hop aboard the 22 seater bus as we journey down to Christmas Hills Raspberry Farm Café in Elizabeth Town, which is the perfect spot for a morning tea that's both delicious and scenic. Known for its raspberry-themed menu, you can indulge in treats like raspberry muffins, pancakes, cheesecakes, and even raspberry lattes.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10–$30 average

Friday 20 February - Berry Patch & Ember & Vines

You and your friends can board the 22 seater bus and head to morning tea at Turners Beach Berry Patch, a family-run farm and licensed cafe renowned for its focus on fresh seasonal produce, offering great coffee, fresh juices, and delicious homemade desserts and light options. Lunch will be at Ember & Vines in Burnie, which specialises in modern cuisine, with a focus on fire-based cooking.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $15–$35 average

Lunch cost: $20–$40 average

Friday 20 February - Evandale Café & Country Club Casino

On the 11 seater bus you will enjoy a charming morning tea at Evandale Cafe, a cozy spot in the historic town known for its delicious food, friendly atmosphere, and outdoor area. For lunch, you are booked at the Country Club Casino Launceston, where you have a choice of dining venues like the Watergarden Cafe for casual meals.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10–$20 average

Lunch cost: $20–$40 average

ctst.org.au

Tuesday 24 February - Cressy Rustic Bakehouse & Campbell Town

Board the 22 seater bus as we head to the Rustic Bakehouse in Cressy, which is famous for baking artisan bread, pies, and unique doughnuts in an original 1926 Scotch woodfired oven. Campbell Town, a historic town on the Heritage Highway, is known for its convict-built Red Bridge and the Convict Brick Trail, with dining at numerous cafes and pubs.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $15–$30 average

Lunch cost: Consumer choice of venue

Thursday 26 February - Crusty's Bakery & Café

You and your friends can hop on board the 22 seater bus where we will enjoy a satisfying meal at Crusty's Bakery and Cafe Wivenhoe, a classic local bakery known for its selection of freshly baked goods, savoury treats, and hot food options.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10–$30 average

Friday 27 February - Olivers Latrobe Café & Bakery & Waterfront Hotel

Join us on the 22 seater bus as our journey first takes us to morning tea at Oliver's Latrobe Café and Bakery in Latrobe, known for its great coffee and large selection of freshly baked goods, including specialty breads, cakes, and gourmet pies. Lunch will be at the Waterfront Hotel in Beauty Point, which boasts stunning views over the Tamar River, offering a bistro menu with a focus on local seafood dishes and prime Tasmanian steaks.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $5–$20 average

Lunch cost: $20–$40 average

Friday 27 February - Railton & Seekers Bar and Café

You and your friends will hop aboard the 11 seater bus where you will begin your day with morning tea in Railton, a charming town known as the "Town of Topiary." For lunch, you are booked at Seekers Bar & Cafe Boat Harbour Beach, which offers a relaxed dining experience with stunning beachfront views from the Surf Life Saving Club.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: Consumer choice of venue

Lunch cost: $10–$25 average

Thursday 5 March - Mumma Buzz Café

You and your friends get to board the 22 seater bus and start your day with a buzz at Mumma Buzz Café in the heart of Deloraine, where great coffee, friendly vibes, and scenic views come together. This cozy café is a local favourite known for its warm hospitality, generous menu, and relaxed atmosphere.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10–$30 average

Friday 6 March - Cradle Gateway Café - Moina & Sheffield Hotel

Today the 22 seater bus will begin in Devonport, the scenic route travels south through the farming district of Wilmot, known for its quirky Novelty Letterbox Trail, before arriving at the Cradle Gateway Café in Moina for a pleasant break. The final leg of the journey then leads you north-east to the "Town of Murals," with lunch at the historic Sheffield Hotel, which offers traditional pub fare and stunning views.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $5–$35 average

Lunch cost: $20–$40 average

ctst.org.au

Friday 6 March - Longford & Campbell Town

On the 11 seater bus you will enjoy a charming morning tea in Longford, a historic town famous for its well-preserved Georgian architecture, quaint streetscapes, and nearby World Heritage Convict Sites. For lunch, you will move onto Campbell Town, a popular stop on the Heritage Highway, where you can choose from numerous restaurants and cafes, or visit the convict-built Red Bridge and The Book Cellar.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: Consumer choice of venue

Lunch cost: Consumer choice of venue

Thursday 12 March - The Atrium Café

Join us on the 22 seater bus as we start our day with a view at The Atrium Café, one of Devonport's most scenic spots for morning tea. The Atrium is known for its fresh barista coffee, homemade cakes, and all-day breakfast menu featuring local Tasmanian produce in a relaxed atmosphere, with friendly service and a breathtaking setting,

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $15-$35 average

Friday 13 March - Exeter Bakery & Pier Hotel

Today the 22 seater bus is heading to the Exeter Bakery, located in Exeter on the West Tamar, which is famous for its century-old tradition of baking, notably the local speciality Curried Scallop Pies, along with a wide range of other pies, bread, and coffee. Travelling further up the Tamar, the Pier Hotel in George Town offers a fine dining experience.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10-$30 average

Lunch cost: $20-$40 average

Friday 13 March - Westbury & Spreyton Cider

You and your friends will hop aboard the 11 seater bus where you will enjoy morning tea in Westbury, a historic village known for its English-style village green and Georgian architecture. For lunch, you are booked at Spreyton Cider Co Spreyton, where you can enjoy their restaurant's seasonal menu, cellar door, and views across the working apple orchards.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: Consumer choice of venue

Lunch cost: $20-$40 average

Thursday 19 March - Windows on Westella

Join us on the 22 seater bus as we visit Windows on Westella in Ulverstone for morning tea and some leisurely shopping. This bright, modern café at the Tasmanian Pickled Onions facility is fully licensed and serves a modern Australian menu highlighting local Tasmanian produce.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $15-$35 average

Friday 20 March - The Hub Café & Prince of Wales Hotel

Hop aboard the 22 seater bus as we head to the Hub Café in Westbury is a family-owned spot known for excellent coffee, fresh local produce, and diverse meals. Meanwhile, Evandale's historic Prince of Wales Hotel is a classic 1840s pub offering hearty British-style dining in a cosy setting.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10-$40 average

Lunch cost: $20-$40 average

ctst.org.au

Friday 20 March - Exeter & The River Café

You will enjoy a tasty morning tea in Exeter with your friends on the 11 seater bus, a central town in the scenic West Tamar Valley, offering a choice of local cafes like Cabin Coffee or Exeter Bakery. For a scenic lunch, you are booked at The River Cafe Beauty Point, which specializes in local Tasmanian seafood and offers stunning views over the Tamar River from their extensive deck.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: Consumer choice of venue

Lunch cost: $10–$30 average

Thursday 26 March - Van Diemens Ice Creamery

You and your friends can hop aboard the 22 seater bus as we start your day with a sweet and scenic morning tea at Van Diemen's Land Creamery in Elizabeth Town, known for its freshly brewed coffees, fresh produce, and of course their handcrafted ice creams and gelatos.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: $10–$35 average

Friday 27 March - OP Shopping - Launceston

Today we can board the 22 seater bus and go on an Op-shopping trip in Launceston, concentrate on the CBD to hit major spots like Salvos on Kings Way and Vinnies on Boland Street for general goods. Also, ensure a stop at Mission on George for collectables and the funky Hope Costume & Thrift Store on St John Street for vintage wear.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: Consumer choice of venue

Lunch cost: Consumer choice of venue

Friday 27 March - Top of the Town Hotel

You and your friends will hop aboard the 11 seater bus and enjoy morning tea of your choice along the way to Burnie. For lunch you are booked at the Top of the Town Hotel Motel Burnie, which features a popular bistro known for its versatile menu and satisfying pub meals.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: Consumer choice of venue

Lunch cost: $20–$40 average

Tuesday 31 March - Hugo's Brew & Chew

Hop aboard the 22 seater bus as we venture to Hugo's Brew and Chew, which is a popular cafe in Smithton open for breakfast and lunch. This locally loved café is known for its warm hospitality, generous portions, and consistently great coffee.

Activity level: Light

Morning tea cost: Consumer choice of venue

Lunch cost: $20–$35 average

Plan your own private social outing!

Did you know that you can book your own day trip with CTST? Our team can work with you to put together an itinerary for you and a minimum of 5 others who have a Commonwealth Home Support Package (CHSP) or are part of the Home & Community Care Program (HACC). The cost is $13.10 per person, per trip just as it is with our scheduled Social Outings, so is an affordable option for a self-led outing with friends.

ctst.org.au

