Today, hearing health is not covered as an employee benefit.
A few employers might offer a legacy hearing aid discount program only for those with severe hearing loss.
Employees are still faced with high out of pocket costs.

Hearing complications and their impact:

Tinnitus

Ringing in the ears

Vestibular Issues

Balance issues create an increased risk of slip and falls

Mental Health Impact

Hearing issues may lead to depression and social isolation

Hearing loss

From mild loss in a few frequencies to moderate or significant hearing loss in one or both ears.

Auditory Processing Disorder

or APD, affects the ability to understand speech
