

Driving Through the Noise

Across transportation roles, ongoing noise exposure poses a serious risk. The following data points show how widespread the issue is.

50%

of long haul truck drivers have measurable hearing loss.

13%

of transportation workers report hearing difficulty

7%

report persistent ringing in the ears – Tinnitus.

52%

fail a basic balance screening test

Tuned

provides hearing support for transportation workers, from operators to ground personnel.

