Living, The Haus Talk Way.

Since 2004, Haus Talk, Inc. has been helping Filipinos turn their dream of owning a home into reality. We build quality, affordable houses in sought-after locations where people prefer to invest in a new home, offering comfort, style, and lasting value. With every community we develop, we bring together cost, quality, and sustainability so more families can enjoy a place that's truly theirs.

Live the Best of Both Worlds.

Perched on the heights of Rizal, Antipolo blends cool breezes, lush views, and fresh air with the energy of a modern urban hub. Here, nature and convenience meet, offering the serenity of suburban living close to shopping, dining, schools, and lifestyle spots. With Haus Talk's expertise in crafting thriving communities, especially in Antipolo, life here only gets better.

Live in Style, Live with Ease.

Enter The Hammond gates and discover a community of stylish two-storey townhouses designed for comfort, functionality, and lasting value. Here, you'll enjoy the peace of secure, organized living—away from the rush of the city yet close enough to what matters. With thoughtfully designed spaces, a safe environment, and the charm of a tight-knit neighborhood, this is affordable living at its most rewarding.

Live a Life of Quality.

On a gentle rise in Antipolo, the 1.4-hectare haven of The Hammond offers two- and three-bedroom townhouses that are more than just a roof over your head.

Solidly built and smartly designed, they give you space to grow, breathe, and simply be. Perfect for starter families or hardworking individuals seeking a break from the metro, these homes rise above the usual standards of affordable living. This is the kind of home you save for—because you deserve something better, something lasting.

Live the Joy of Everyday Moments.

Life at The Hammond is more than the comfort of your own home. It's the joy of a community designed for balance and well-being. Here, tree-lined paths, open spaces, and amenities create a setting where families can grow together and children can explore safely. Weekends are spent outdoors, and every corner invites connection. The Hammond offers the quality of life that nurtures both the body and the spirit.
