CEDARVALE UPPER VILLAGE

September 2024 Community Update

Hi Everyone,

Please read below for the latest updates.

Traffic & Safety – eglintonTOday Update

The City of Toronto is installing a segment of the eglintonTOday Complete Street on Eglinton Avenue West from Avenue Road to Chaplin Crescent. Moving into 2025, the Complete Street installation will continue to connect existing cycling infrastructure between Bicknell Avenue and Mount Pleasant Road.

Traffic & Safety – Beltline Gap Connections Project

Council approved the Beltline Gap Connections Project in June 2024.

This project proposes new cycling and pedestrian infrastructure over the Allen Road Expressway to close the gap between the York Beltline and Kay Gardner Trails.

The project area includes sections along Marlee Avenue, Roselawn Avenue and Elm Ridge Drive, and the Allen Greenway multi-use trail.

Parks & Public Spaces – Eglinton Streetscape Masterplan

Back in June, residents were invited to participate in an online Streetscape Design Survey to help the Upper Village BIA and the city guide the design and implementation of new streetscape features that will revitalize our neighbourhood.

Events - Cedarvale Community Festival

Ward 12 Councillor, Josh Matlow, is inviting the neighbourhood to a Cedarvale Community Festival on Saturday, September 21st (12pm – 4pm) at Cedarvale Park (443 Arlington Ave).

The CUVCG will have a booth, so come by and say hi. There will be a raffle, prizes, ice cream, and other interactive activities. For details, please take a look at the flyer HERE.

Events - Tunes and Blooms

The Upper Village BIA is bringing local musicians to the neighbourhood via a vibrant free music series until the end of October. To learn more details about these music events, please visit the Upper Village BIA Instagram Account to stay in the know.
