

GLOBAL UPDATE BY PASTOR HOLLY

Mexico (One Life One Chance): Pray for the Canadian and Mexican staff as they work together to strategize and plan various events and meetings that help serve local pastors in the San Quintin area. At present, OL serves pastors by being involved in unity meetings, unity house-builds, training, and other opportunities that help pastors serve their communities. Many denominations are represented in this area. OL has sought to become and is a neutral entity that has been key in developing this unity.

Alliance Chrétienne et Missionnaire de Rimouski: Our Quebec team returned this past week. Be in prayer for the aftermath of the outreach events they participated in alongside the believers in the church. Pray for further gospel conversations and opportunities to share Jesus with the unchurched and skeptical secular people making up the community at large.

WELCOME!

August 24, 2025

Welcome to CAC.

August usually comes with a lot of changes as people get into new routines. If you're new in town and looking for a church, we'd love to help you see if CAC could be a good fit. The easiest ways to start are by stopping by our Connections Center desk in the foyer, checking out our website, or just coming up front to chat with one of the pastors. At CAC, we're all about going Deeper and Wider with God, and if that sounds like something you'd like to be part of, you're more than welcome to jump in.

We're glad you've come.
Pastor Matt
