

GLOBAL UPDATE BY PASTOR HOLLY

Don and Betty Orr (Area Directors for Central Asia and Middle East teams): These two are traveling quite a bit this month, with potential workers, scouting out new areas for team development and presence in these 2 regions. Pray for wisdom and discernment for all involved. Also a prayer and praise; their int'l church hosted a youth event recently. They say 15 youth made first time decisions to follow Jesus and many re-dedicated their lives to his service. Pray for the follow-up that is now underway!!

Peru (AIDIA, Luis Cervantes, Director): Did you know the AIDIA staff prays for our church every Thursday? Well, they do (I just learned this from the team recently there). And many of them tune in to our online services. They want the connection! Pray for their relationships with each other (may they do conflict well), with their families (lots of travel involved), and strong, supportive ties with friends (there are a few single people). Pray also for their travel (lots of roads, weather, remoteness, availability). We can also be praying as they help 8 other language groups with translation and Scripture use promotion. On the flip side, pray for those villages they would like to get to but aren't necessarily receptive.

What a weekend we've just been through!

The World Series wrapped up, Candyland Carnival has come and gone, and we all got to enjoy an extra hour's sleep last night! Now, it's Sunday morning, and maybe you're wondering why you're here. Whether you're focused or frazzled; ready for God or just ready for a break, we're glad you've come and trust that you hear from Him today and feel welcomed into this community.
