

GLOBAL UPDATE BY PASTOR HOLLY

Don and Betty Orr (Area Directors for Central Asia and Middle East teams): We are grateful to God for their return to Canada. This was an already scheduled trip and not a response to the situation in the middle east. For their local team, it seems to be business as usual; their city has not been a target for attack. For others in nearby, bigger cities, there are varying degrees of anxiety, so let's continue to pray for them and their families.

Don and Betty will be in Canada through the end of June/early July. They are continuing their day jobs. Don will be traveling to Poland with a team from Mission Alliance and then to Thailand for meetings. They are also looking at meeting and supporting/coaching 4 potential new couples looking for ministry placement among those the Orrs serve. Pray for those times. Pray for God to continue to empower them to do as He has called them to do. Pray for their marriage; that they would continue to serve each other well and grow in love, knowledge and understanding of the other. Pray that God will meet the specific needs they have.

GROWING DEEP ◦ REACHING WIDE

WELCOME!

April 19, 2026

Welcome to Chilliwack Alliance this morning!

We are a church that wants to help people go deep with God and are convinced that that happens in the context of community. So, if you're new among us, when you're comfortable, we'd love for you to make yourself known by filling out a Connection Card so that we can help you along the journey.

For those of us who make this church our home, welcome once again! This morning, we are continuing to look at the Kingdom of God that Christ inaugurated with His death and resurrection, asking the question, "What is the defining characteristic of that Kingdom?"

I'm glad you're here, and pray that God works in your life today

Pastor Matt
