WHAT IS SUMMER IMMERSION?

Our Summer Immersion program aims to provide students with an introduction to a variety of courses from the Islamic tradition such as Tafsir (Quranic Exegesis), Islamic History, Tazkiyah (Purification of Heart), and Seerah (Prophetic Biography). By enrolling in the Summer Immersion, students receive a glimpse into Miftaah Institute's main offering, the Associate's Program, in regards to timing, classwork, and formatting.

Divine Address: Revelation Spoken Through the Prophet ﷺ

INSTRUCTOR:

Mufti Abdul Rahman Waheed

SCHEDULE

Summer 2026

DATES:

Tuesdays

Course Description:

The Qur'an is a direct conversation between Allah and His creation, and among its most powerful moments are the commands of “قُلْ” (Say)—when the Prophet ﷺ is instructed to speak on behalf of revelation. These verses clarify belief, respond to doubts, and call people to truth. This class explores the significance of these Divine addresses, examining how revelation is conveyed through the Prophet ﷺ and what it teaches us about faith, clarity, and conveying truth in our own lives.

Course Objectives:

- Recognize the role of “Qul” verses in conveying Allah’s message.
- Identify key themes such as tawhīd, guidance, and responding to doubts.
- Apply these lessons to strengthen faith and communication.

Holding Firm to the Truth: Understanding Islamic Sects

INSTRUCTOR:

Mufti Aasim Rashid

SCHEDULE

Summer 2026

DATES:

Sundays

Course Description:

Throughout Islamic history, differences in belief and interpretation have given rise to various sects, each shaped by unique theological, political, and intellectual developments. This course explores the origins and evolution of major Islamic sects, examining their core beliefs, key figures, and historical contexts. Students will gain a grounded understanding of how these differences emerged, how scholars responded to them, and how to approach such discussions with knowledge, balance, and adab.

Course Objectives:

- Identify the historical events and early disagreements that led to the formation of major Islamic sects.
- Differentiate between the core theological positions of various sects and schools within Islam.
- Engage with discussions on ikhtilāf with respect and an appreciation for the scholarly tradition of Ahl al-Sunnah.
