It is most concentrated in the center and bottom right, with lighter wisps trailing towards the top and left.

“Now all glory to God, who is able to keep you from falling away and will bring you with great joy into his glorious presence without a single fault. All glory to him who alone is God, our Saviour through Jesus Christ our Lord. All glory, majesty, power, and authority are his before all time, and in the present, and beyond all time! Amen.” Jude 1:24-25

STRENGTHEN

AGNZ NATIONAL CONFERENCE 2026

PRAYER AND FASTING 31ST AUG - 20TH SEP

PRAYER GUIDE

Sunday 20th September
DAY 21

Kia Ora

Grace, peace and strength to you all.

On behalf of the Executive team, thank you for your commitment to this 21-day prayer initiative.

We have now, as a new Executive, been on this pathway of doubling our footprint for nearly three years. And, to quote the words of the Jerusalem Council, 'it seemed good to us, and the Holy Spirit', that this season that we presently find ourselves in, should be dedicated to the 'strengthening' of believers, leaders, and local assemblies.

Phil 4:11b-13 declares these wonderful words. 'I have learned in whatever situation I am to be content. I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance, I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need. I can do all things through Him who strengthens me ...'

Paul could write with conviction, and through painful personal experience, that he 'knew' how God's strength could be accessed, leading to his continual contentment, regardless of the circumstances. This is something that God seeks to impart to us all, so that we are the shining lights of hope, those around us need to see.

But I must also add, there is no shortcut here. We each on occasion find ourselves with a world of lack, being brought low, finding that we have no more to give. And yet, it is here that the invitation to trust, to 'let' God do, what only He can do, that we too can more boldly say, 'I can (and am still learning) that I can do all things through Him who strengthens me'.

May God in His abundance of mercy, long suffering and power, fill us with His hope and joy, knowing that as we press in through persistent prayer and trust, that all things indeed are possible.

All the best in this focused time of 21 days of prayer. May God exceed all expectations.

Amen

Terry Bradley
AGNZ General Superintendent

"After the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, he was taken up into heaven and he sat at the right hand of God. Then the disciples went out and preached everywhere, and the Lord worked with them and confirmed his word by the signs that accompanied it." Mark 16:19-20

But he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ’s power may rest on me. That is why, for Christ’s sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.” 2 Corinthians 12:8–10

David’s two wives had been captured—Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal of Carmel. David was greatly distressed because the men were talking of stoning him; each one was bitter in spirit because of his sons and daughters. But David found strength in the Lord his God. Then David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelek, “Bring me the ephod.” Abiathar brought it to him, and David inquired of the Lord, “Shall I pursue this raiding party? Will I overtake them? “Pursue them,” he answered. “You will certainly overtake them and succeed in the rescue.”” 1 Samuel 30:3–8

He prayed more fervently, and he was in such agony of spirit that his sweat fell to the ground like great drops of blood.
