PARTS 3-4: 3. Content: Structure & Themes
The major sections of the book and the big ideas to look for

PARTS 5-7: 4. Response: God, Us & Favorites
What the book teaches about God, offers our life, and what we love

4. STRUCTURE - EXPANDED

4. What are the levels and the 7 parts?

5. What do we learn about God from each of these sections?

6. What do these sections offer our Christian life?

3 LEVELS: 1. THREE LEVELS OF STUDY

We go wide before we go deep: the whole story, then groups of books, then each book

LEVEL 1: The Whole Bible
The mountaintop view: the entire story at once, told through its major turning points

LEVEL 2: Groups of Books
Genres like the Torah, Prophets, Poetry, and Gospels: what each group offers as a whole

LEVEL 3: Individual Books
Most episodes: everything you need to know to study or teach one book of the Bible well

PARTS 1-2: 2. CONTEXT: DETAILS & STORY

Real people in real events: know the background so we never take God's Word out of context

PART 1: Essential Details
Author, date, setting, purpose, audience, and genre, so we make no false assumptions

PART 2: Storyline
Where the book fits in the Bible's one story, so we don't lose the forest for a tree

PARTS 3-4: 3. CONTENT: STRUCTURE & THEMES

How the author's intent unfolds, and which concepts we should be watching for as we read

PART 3: Structure
The major sections and turning points, which show how the author's intent plays out

PART 4: Themes & Ideas
The major concepts to look for, each showing the one story and God's character from a new angle

PARTS 5-7: 4. RESPONSE: GOD, US & FAVORITES

Knowing God shapes who we are and how we live, and his living Word keeps speaking

PART 5: About God
What the book teaches us about God, because we cannot love what we do not know

PART 6: For Us
What the book offers our Christian life: our identity and how to live, flowing from who God is

PART 7: Favorite Things
What we personally love, because God's living Word comes alive in new ways in every season of life

5. HOW THE BIBLE POINTS TO CHRIST

- The whole Bible tells one unified message about Jesus Christ
- Like Jesus, the Word is fully divine and truly human
- The Great Commission: disciples who make disciples
- Jesus and his Word never change, yet always speak anew
