Are You Serious About Building a 7-Figure Property Portfolio and Creating a Passive Income that Truly Impacts Your Life?

Navigating the plethora of property courses offering various strategies can be overwhelming. While these courses promise different methods to achieve success, the key to building a property portfolio that generates a significant passive income extends beyond one strategy alone.

For instance, traditional Buy-to-Let (BTL) investments are challenged by high deposit requirements and taxes on rental incomes post-2017. For example, a £300,000 property in Birmingham needs a £75,000 deposit, yielding just 2.99% net annual return after costs.

While Buy, Refurbish, and Refinance (BRR) may offer an alternative by renovating properties for increased value, challenges are faced by investors, such as finding suitable properties, high competition, and the significant time and capital investments involved.

Rent-to-Rent (R2R) may appeal to many newcomers due to low startup costs. However, on close inspection, R2R proves impractical due to slim profit margins, legal complexities, and lack of property appreciation benefits, resembling a job rather than a viable long-term investment for serious investors.

What you need is a proven system that goes beyond generic strategies, offering comprehensive support, a robust network, and accessible resources tailored to your unique circumstances. This integrated approach ensures practical application in your life, yielding swift and tangible results.

Our system is based on leverage, incorporating two decades of strategies used by our founder, Vincent Wong. It consists of four fundamental pillars that support a successful property business, designed for maximum results with minimal effort.

"Give me a lever long enough and a fulcrum on which to place it, and I shall move the world."

Our Portfolio-Builder's Four-Pillar System™

Our system is based on leverage, incorporating two decades of strategies used by our founder, Vincent Wong. It consists of four fundamental pillars that support a successful property business, designed for maximum results with minimal effort.

- ✓ Source Below Market Deals
- ✓ Access Your Capital
- ✓ Flips
- ✓ Control Not Own

Pillar One

Source Below Market Deals

We avoid inflated property prices by accessing off-market deals that are not publicly advertised. Engaging directly with sellers empowers us to negotiate terms and prices, utilising both offline and online channels. Vincent's extensive experience, having closed over 1,000 deals, ensures substantial discounts—often up to 40% below market value—due to his effective negotiation strategies.

"I've had an incredible first week with the inner circle, and I can't express enough gratitude to the coach. During the first week, I successfully secured three deals using the lockout agreements."

-Kirk Shephard

Pillar Two

Access Your Capital

To preserve and expand portfolios without depleting capital, we use three key strategies:

- Source Below Market Deals and Refinance: Acquiring properties below market value and refinancing them allows you to recycle their initial capital for further acquisitions.
- Use OPM (Other People's Money): By raising funds from private investors, you can minimise personal financial exposure while achieving higher returns on your investments.
- Access Commercial Finance: Beyond standard buy-to-let mortgages, you can tap into commercial finance that provides substantial funding for substantial property acquisitions as you develop your track records.

Pillar Three

"The Inner Circle helped me achieved results much quicker. With the help of my coach, I raised over £200,000 cash within 24 hours for my project and had to turn investors away. I also have the community behind me for support and accountability."

-Aurimas Norkunas

Flips

Unlike traditional property flipping where buying low and selling high is key, our Double Settlement method (also known as Back-to-Back) operates without capital investment.

This approach relies on a Lockout Agreement, securing a property like a £200,000 asset at 25% Below Market Value (£150,000). After a three-month Lockout, the property can be sold for £180,000, resulting in a £30,000 profit.

Double Settlement entails minimal risk with unlimited potential upside, offering significant leverage for passive income without the complexities of financing, tenant management, or property ownership issues.

Pillar Four

Control Not Own

A Lease Option provides an innovative solution where an investor helps a distressed homeowner by assuming their mortgage payments, enabling them to vacate the property promptly.

This arrangement comprises two components: the lease, allowing the investor to rent out the property for immediate cash flow, and the option, fixing a future purchase price for a specified period.

Structured with specific terms, the Lease Option allows investors to expand their property portfolio without the need for traditional mortgage financing or deposits, facilitated by specialised lease option lawyers.

"I left the army being financially illiterate with no prospect for financial freedom. Since working with Vincent Wong 8 years ago, my first flip made me £168,919 in cash and now I own a portfolio worth in excess of £10 million."

-Daniel Kennedy

Training:

The goal of the training is to deep-dive into the elements of our Portfolio-Builder's 4-Pillar System. You will gain access to 100 hours of step-by-step online video training plus Vincent Wong's signature three-day virtual live programme Property Entrepreneur Bootcamp.

Specifically, we will cover the following topics:

- How to value residential and commercial properties
- How to recycle your capital to achieve infinite return on your investments
- How to access off-market deals to create a deal-flow and beat the competition
- How to conduct your due diligence through deal-stacking
- The different sources of finance beyond standard buy-to-let
- How to raise capital from private investors
- How to find motivated sellers who are ready to sell their properties at a substantial discount
- The essential rules of negotiation and how to negotiate on the terms
- How to close deals at up to 40% below the market value
- How to use Lease Option to control property without using mortgage financing and capital
- How to use an Assignment and Double Settlement to flip a deal and make £10k - £100k cash
- How to cultivate the mindset to become a successful Property Entrepreneur

"Thanks to my coach Florence; as a student, I did five Lease Option deals in London. You can reach out to Florence anytime and she is an amazing human-being."

First week with the Inner circle

I've had an incredible first week with the inner circle, and I can't express enough gratitude to the coach. They have all been absolutely exceptional in answering my questions promptly and with great enthusiasm.

During my first week, I successfully secured three deals using the lockout agreements. The first one is a below-market off-market deal with a purchase price of £160,000 and a GDV (gross development value) of £250,000. The reason for the sale is a marital breakup, and both parties are eager for a quick sale. With only a light renovation costing around £20,000, this deal looks very promising.

The second deal is a lease option agreement with a vendor who has had their property on the market for a while. We have agreed on a purchase price of £255,000 and a monthly payment of £350 over a 5-year period. This gives us the flexibility to either purchase or sell the property within that timeframe.

The third deal is similar to the second one, another lockout agreement. We have agreed to purchase the property at the current asking price of £250,000 within the next 5 years and make monthly payments of £350. Both deals mentioned above yield a monthly income of £1,000. Overall, it has been an incredibly successful and fulfilling first week with the inner circle.

This is the best Property training I have completed to date

The below has been possible due to this amazing environment and coaches.

I've been diligently working behind the scenes and I'm excited to share some updates:

Portfolio Expansion: We've recently acquired a portfolio of 12 properties, currently undergoing renovations. In the coming weeks, we'll begin the refinancing process for these deals.

New Opportunity: I've been presented with another opportunity—a portfolio of 8 properties. The owners, looking to retire due to health reasons, are familiar with lockout agreements. The offer will be below the valuers' valuation.

Upcoming Projects: Additionally, we have 4 properties set to complete soon, acquired at a

Caleb completed on his first BMV Deal!

Huge congratulations to Caleb on his first BMV deal! Picked up the keys today after successfully completing yesterday. It's been a roller coaster of challenges but Caleb implemented everything he learnt from our training, from sourcing to following my step-by-step negotiations, he's now the proud owner of this 3-bed semi in a lovely residential location of Nottingham. PP at 150k, and projected GDV at 200-220k, this will be a NMLI deal. Kudos to Esther and her team for helping Caleb with the financing and of course Manish for the speedy conveyancing! We truly are The A Team! 🍌🍌🍌

Since joining this group

Since joining this group, everything I thought I knew about property investing has transformed to an entirely different level. This course has truly been a game-changer for me.

Property investing is so much more than just buying and selling real estate; it's about people, networks, strategies, and the continuous pursuit of new skills. The instructors emphasise the importance of ethical practices, which has been incredibly inspiring and reassuring.

The wealth of knowledge and support within this community is unparalleled. The networking opportunities alone have been invaluable, allowing me to connect with like-minded investors and industry professionals who share their insights and experiences generously.

If you're serious about taking your property investing to the next level, this course is an absolute must. It's not just an investment in property, but an investment in yourself and your future success.

Stellar Property Entrepreneur Bootcamp

Property Entrepreneur Bootcamp, Wealth Dragons

Vincent Wong is phenomenal at ALL levels of property deal-making. For a couple of decades, he has fine-tuned specific ways to do great property deals, most interestingly several NO MONEY DOWN strategies, which makes any return/yield you receive not a mere 5% or 10% ... but INFINITE.

I just came out of his 4-day Bootcamp and his team is knowledgeable, thorough, and diligent. I highly recommend them to all real estate investors all around the world who want to start or scale up.

Drop out the outside noise by telling yourself "STOP IT!" and just do it.

About Vincent Wong

Vincent began building his property portfolio in 2000 while working as a community pharmacist in the UK. By 2005, he had developed an innovative approach to finding property sellers online, and has since sourced, negotiated and closed over 1,000 property deals for himself and his investors. In 2008, amid the financial crisis, Vincent pioneered the use of Lease Option to control assets without using mortgage financing or deposits. The following year, he co-founded Wealth Dragons to teach his revolutionary strategies. In 2009, Wealth Dragons Group made history by becoming the first UK property training company to be listed on a stock exchange. His training programs have educated over 10,000 people worldwide. Vincent has authored several books, including "Property Entrepreneur" (Wiley), and is a regular expert on "Property Question Time" on Sky TV.
