Music in the Fields Repeats “Top 100 Festivals & Events” Honour

Lucknow’s eminent annual music fest earns 4th consecutive distinction from Festivals & Events Ontario

Feb. 27, 2026, Lucknow, ON – Lucknow’s Music in the Fields, presented by Montgomery Ford, has been named among the Top 100 festivals and events in Ontario for the fourth year in a row. The list of 2026 honourees was announced on February 25th as part of FEO’s “SUSTAIN” Conference in Kitchener, ON.

“We’re incredibly honoured that Music in the Fields has once again been recognized as one of the Top 100 Festivals & Events in Ontario by FEO,” shares LMITF Co-Chair and Lucknow & District Kinsmen member Rick McMurray. “This recognition is a testament to the passion of our volunteers, the loyalty of our fans, and the generous support of our sponsors and community partners. Hosting this event each year in Lucknow is something we’re deeply proud of, and we remain committed to delivering an unforgettable festival experience that showcases great music while also supporting our local community and various charitable causes.”

The 2026 edition of Music in the Fields returns to Lucknow’s Graceland Event Grounds from August 27-29, with an artist lineup including genre-defying, Texan chart-topper Koe Wetzel; Canadian rock titans Finger Eleven and Headstones; and searing CMA-winning star Elle King.

A Lucknow & District Kinsmen event, the three-day festival comprises high-impact musical performances across multiple stages, onsite camping, family-friendly games and activities, food and craft beverage vendors, and more, with 100% of proceeds supporting community and charitable initiatives.

Festivals & Events Ontario (FEO) is a non-profit organization that has been representing the festivals and events industry in the province for nearly four decades. They assist communities in producing unique, quality events by providing education, professional development, and networking opportunities.
