At Studio Eminence, we are passionate storytellers committed to capturing the beauty, emotion, and cultural richness of your most important day. Based in Melbourne, we specialise in premium wedding photography and videography, offering a boutique experience for couples who want their love story told with elegance, authenticity, and artistic flair.

Our team is proud to be one of Melbourne's leading choices for South Asian weddings, with extensive experience in Indian, Sri Lankan, Pakistani, and Bangladeshi traditions. We deeply understand the vibrant rituals, emotional moments, and intricate details that make these weddings truly special and we're experts at preserving them for a lifetime.

Beyond South Asian weddings, we embrace multicultural celebrations of all kinds, from fusion ceremonies to destination weddings. Whether you're planning a traditional ceremony, a modern celebration, or a blend of both, our team is equipped to capture every moment with creativity and precision.

We offer full-service wedding coverage across Melbourne, as well as interstate locations including Sydney, Brisbane, Adelaide, and Perth. We also proudly travel overseas to capture international love stories, ensuring no distance limits our dedication to your special day.

CLIENT TESTIMONIAL

The team at Studio Eminence did an awesome job of photography and videography for our wedding.

During the lead up and planning stages they were very professional, helped us greatly with organising the runsheet, giving us quality advice based on their experience and overall were so easy to work with.

On the day of the wedding, they did an absolutely amazing job. The entire team brought so much passion and energy to capture our day. They were committed, driven and motivated to capture photos even towards the end of a very long day and were always on the lookout for photo opportunities. They made us feel so at ease, comfortable and natural taking photos. They ensured we were running to schedule and even helped us resolve any issues that came up during the day. They worked so well with all our other vendors and honestly went above and beyond.

The photos were exactly what we were after, we love their photography style, and they captured every moment. The video they produced was incredible. They have an incredible talent for cinematography. We are so grateful.

The team at Studio Eminence are passionate, talented, have an eye for photography, know how weddings run and the expectations/demands of them, and know what they are doing. If you're looking for a great team to work with, who are a great bunch of guys, and a team you can trust to perfectly capture your wedding day, then we highly recommend Studio Eminence.
