

Leadership Influence & Networks

Work smarter, lead inclusively, and leverage your network to advance change.

This workshop helps mid- to senior-level leaders understand and grow their influence in service of meaningful change. Participants explore the relationship between power, influence, and allyship; map their current networks; and learn how to lead inclusively by using influence with, not over. Grounded in equity and inclusion, this session offers practical strategies to build trust, strengthen relationships, and advance initiatives across complex organizations.
