

Shaddox Award

Criteria

The original criteria for the Shaddox Award was determined during a meeting in 2012 at the Arkansas REALTORS® office in Little Rock. The discussions named the award and set it up to have the award presented annually during the Arkansas REALTORS® convention. It is to be presented to the one person who, in the opinion of the judges, has made outstanding, long-term, and continuing contributions to the Arkansas REALTORS® volunteerism and fundraising for Hearts & Homes of Arkansas, Inc.. Judging is patterned after the L. Wayne Camp Award in that future recipients would compose the judging panel. In previous years, in the absence of recipients, selection was made by the Hearts & Homes of Arkansas, Inc., Board of Directors. In ensuing years, all previous recipients will compose the panel.

The primary criteria are as follows:

1. Involved in Hearts & Homes fundraising efforts.
2. Long-term involvement (unlike the REALTOR® of the Year award which recognizes current year activity).
3. Member in good standing of the Arkansas REALTORS® Association

It is awarded under the precept that the honor seeks the recipient.

Selection is made during a meeting of all previous recipients, generally via a conference call. All the previous recipients are notified of the meeting (or call). A previous recipient may, with valid excuse, be excused from the meeting or call. The recipient is selected by a majority vote of those participating.

Applications MUST be emailed by August 15 of the current year and MUST include a photo of the nominee
