

Experience Escuelita at DC Bilingual

An Immersive Learning Opportunity for School Teams. We invite you to re-imagine what's possible at your school by experiencing, firsthand, the systems and structures that helped transform DC Bilingual PCS into a model school.

Escuelita is a three day immersive community of practice experience designed for vertical school teams including: teachers, school leaders, and instructional teams seeking inspiration—and time to think, align, and plan together.

What to Expect

Step into DC Bilingual's dynamic learning environment and explore the intentional practices that have shaped a thriving dual language school. During your Escuelita experience, you will:

- Observe the daily workings of a high-performing dual language school
- Engage in deep collaboration and strategy-sharing with peers
- Leave with practical tools, fresh insights, and a working plan to bring back to your own school community
