

Device best practice

The device's antenna should always be facing skyward

Make sure the device is not obstructed by PPE or machinery

If you're working in areas with obstructions such as bridges, tunnels or tall trees, this will affect device accuracy

The device will notify you if its accuracy is compromised, ensuring you're aware of any issues right away. Learn more about device accuracy:

