

Irrefutable Evidence. Impossible Deadline Met.

THE MISSION

Divorce Analytics specializes in complex divorce financial analysis. Principal Victoria Kirilloff, CDFA®, NCPM®, CDS®, focuses on high-net-worth cases requiring irrefutable evidence of marital lifestyle, spousal support needs, and asset disclosure — where numbers presented to a judge must be defensible.

THE CHALLENGE

Analyzing 12,000 Transactions Under a Tight Timeline

To deliver a court-ready spousal support analysis in a high-net-worth divorce case — with figures high enough to require airtight, full-population verification before a judge would accept them.

Extreme Data Volume

Over 12,000 individual transactions across multiple credit card and bank accounts required categorization.

Tight Timeline

The case required a fast turnaround, making manual categorization "a daunting task" within the timeframe provided.

Missing Statement Risk

Without identifying data gaps, the spousal support analysis could be built on incomplete data — undermining its defensibility in court.

Document Disorganization

An electronic pile of PDFs needed to be organized and individually identified before analysis could even begin.
