

COMMAND PRESENCE
TRAINING

Pick Your Date
8:00 am – 5:00 pm

Foundations of Force: Reasonable Responses and Expectations

Use of force decisions are under constant scrutiny.

This 8-hour course helps officers strengthen decision-making under stress and apply reasonable, well-articulated responses in the field. Participants examine the factors that influence performance during high-pressure situations and develop practical tools to improve both officer safety and decision quality.

Clear decisions. Clear articulation. Stronger outcomes.

Course Topics

- Use of Force Trends and Legal Foundations
Review current trends and strengthen understanding of what constitutes reasonable force in today's environment.
- Decision-Making Under Stress
Explore how human performance is affected during high-stress encounters and how that influences decision-making.
- Strengthening Decision-Making Tools
Identify practical strategies that support clear, effective decisions in dynamic situations.
- Report Writing and Articulation
Examine the foundations of effective report writing and strengthen the ability to clearly explain actions and decisions.
- Preparing for the Aftermath of a Force Incident
Explore considerations and strategies that support officers following a use of force event.

8 hours

Who should attend?

This course is designed for Sworn Personnel, Correctional Officers, Trainers, Investigators, and Supervisors.

Hosted by:
Your Agency
Name Here

Location:
Your Event Location Here

Cost: Flexible Pricing Options

Registration:
Custom Link For Your Agency

Contact Us!

(833) LE-TRAIN
(833) 538-7246

info@commandpresence.net

Scan the QR code to view our entire training schedule.

