Mobile Application Provisions

App Stores

You acknowledge and agree that the availability of the Mobile App and the Service depends on the third-party platform from which you obtained the Mobile App license, such as the Apple App Store or Google Play ("App Store"). You recognize that these Terms are solely between you and Co-Elite, not with the App Store. Co-Elite, not the App Store, is fully responsible for the Service, including the Mobile App, its content, maintenance, and any claims related to it (e.g., product liability, legal compliance, or intellectual property infringement). To use the Mobile App, you must have access to a wireless network and agree to pay all associated fees. You also agree to pay any fees charged by the App Store in connection with the Service, including the Mobile App. Your license to use the Mobile App is contingent upon your compliance with all applicable third-party terms of agreement (e.g., the App Store's terms and policies). You acknowledge that the App Store (and its subsidiaries) are third-party beneficiaries of these Terms and have the right to enforce them.

Additional License Terms for Apple App Store

If you access or download any Mobile App from the Apple App Store (an "App Store Sourced Application"), you will use the App Store Sourced Application only (i) on Apple-branded products running iOS (Apple's proprietary operating system), and (ii) as permitted by the "Usage Rules" outlined in Apple's Terms of Service. The following applies to any App Store Sourced Application:

You acknowledge and agree that (i) these Terms are solely between you and Co-Elite, not Apple, and (ii) Co-Elite, not Apple, is solely responsible for the App Store Sourced Application and its content. Your use of the App Store Sourced Application must comply with the App Store Terms of Service.

You understand that Apple has no obligation to provide maintenance and support services for the App Store Sourced Application.

In the event that the App Store Sourced Application fails to conform to any applicable warranty, you may notify Apple, and Apple will refund the purchase price to you; to the maximum extent permitted by law, Apple will have no further warranty obligations regarding the App Store Sourced Application. Any claims, losses, liabilities, damages, costs, or expenses resulting from a failure to meet warranty obligations will be the sole responsibility of Co-Elite.

You and Co-Elite acknowledge that, between Co-Elite and Apple, Apple is not responsible for addressing any claims you or any third party may have regarding the App Store Sourced Application or your use of it, including but not limited to: (i) product liability claims; (ii) claims that the App Store Sourced Application fails to meet applicable legal or regulatory requirements; and (iii) claims arising under consumer protection or similar legislation.

You and Co-Elite agree that, if a third-party claims that the App Store Sourced Application or your use of it infringes their intellectual property rights, Co-Elite, not Apple, will be solely responsible for investigating, defending, settling, and resolving any such claims as required by these Terms.

You and Co-Elite acknowledge and agree that Apple, along with its subsidiaries, are third-party beneficiaries of these Terms related to your license for the App Store Sourced Application, and that upon your acceptance of these Terms, Apple has the right to enforce them as a third-party beneficiary.

Without limiting any other terms, you must comply with all applicable third-party agreements when using the App Store Sourced Application.

Additional License Terms for Android App Store

The following additional terms apply to any Mobile App provided by Co-Elite for use on Android devices (an "Android App"):

You acknowledge that these Terms are solely between you and Co-Elite, not with Google, Inc. ("Google").

Your use of Co-Elite's Android App must comply with Google's then-current Google Play Terms of Service.

Google acts only as a provider of the Android App market from which you obtained the Android App. Co-Elite, not Google, is responsible for the Android App and the services and content available through it. Google has no obligations or liabilities to you regarding Co-Elite's Android App or these Terms.

You acknowledge and agree that Google is a third-party beneficiary of these Terms as they relate to Co-Elite's Android App.

Scholarship Disclaimers and Limitations
